

Abstract of the Disclosure

METHOD AND APPARATUS FOR TRACKING OBJECTS AT A SITE

A method and apparatus for tracking the location of an object near a machine at a site. The method and apparatus includes determining a position of the machine, determining a position of the object, transmitting the determined position of the object from the object to the machine, and displaying the position of the object relative to the position of the machine to an operator of the machine.